Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb, Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Cordelia Erwin, Choon Chun, Korea; Mrs. M. E. Tilley, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. A. J. McKinnon, Maxton, N. C., and Mrs. C. W. Peppler, Durham, N. C., were introduced to the Conference.

Following the announcements, the Conference adjourned for the noon devotional, conducted by Mrs. W. C. Peppler.

"The Lord Is My Shepherd" was beautifully sung by Mrs. F. S. Love. Mrs. Peppler gave the Bible study based on the 29th verse of the 24th Chapter of St. Luke: "Abide with us, for it is toward evening and the day is far spent." This vital message brought to the Conference on the nearness of our Saviour and of what His presence meant to the disciples on that Resurrection Day, was a real inspiration to the Conference.

The last three verses of "Abide With Me" were sung by Mrs. Love, the congregation kneeling in prayer.

WEDNESDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Memorial Service was conducted by Mrs. H. C. Spiers. Mrs. F. M. Shamberger led in the responsive reading of the 90th Psalm. A message so full of hope and comfort was given by Mrs. Spiers, followed by a prayer led by Miss Amma Graham. Fifty Auxiliary members went to their reward during the past year and their names were placed on the Memorial Roll. Many expressions of love and esteem were given to the memory of those who had served so beautifully among us.

The Conference was called to order by the President. Minutes of preceding session were read and approved.

Mrs. M. E. Tilley, Second Vice-President of the North Georgia Conference, gave an illustrated address, using as her subject "The Structure of Our Missionary work." It was made clear that the Baby Division, Junior Division and Young People's Work were the real foundation stones for the other parts of the Missionary Structure with its many varied parts.

The North Carolina Conference owes a great debt of thanks to the North Georgia Conference for the presence of Mrs. Tilley among us. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Tilley.

Miss Elizabeth Lamb made an urgent plea for the growth of the Woman's Missionary Society in the North Carolina Conference. Miss Lillie Duke, First Vice-President, gave a report of Young People's Work. (Officers' reports No. 3.)

The Brazilian National Flag, given by Miss Mary Pescud, and to be presented each year to the Young People's Auxiliary, making the highest average per capita, was won by the Rose Hill Auxiliary. Miss Mary Ella McCall, Student Volunteer from our own Conference, was introduced. A special prayer for Miss McCall and the other five Student Volunteers of the North Carolina Conference was led by Mrs. John.

Miss Cordelia Erwin told several intensely interesting stories of some boys and girls she had worked with in Korea.

Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson, Second Vice-President, read the report of the Children's Work. Report adopted. (Officers' reports No. 4.)

A letter of loving greetings from Mrs. Lula H. Rhodes was much appreciated.

The Secretary was instructed to send telegrams expressing the love of the Conference to Mrs. R. A. Willis, President Emerita and to Mrs. L. M. Hendren.

Following the announcements, the Conference adjourned.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Bible Lesson was given by Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb. The 11th Chapter of Mark, 20th to 26th verses, was the Lesson read. Our greatest need of prayer was so strongly emphasized by Mrs. Lipscomb—"The first demand of the Centenary being that we as Methodists must learn to pray again."

The President, Miss Lamb, called the Conference to order. Minutes of preceding Session were read and approved. Mrs. R. B. John made an announcement concerning the Centenary Luncheon, urging that the Conference be much in prayer for the messages of the afternoon.

Mrs. F. B. McKinne gave the Treasurer's report. (Officer's report No. 2.) Report adopted. The Conference rejoices over the fact that we had the best report in our history, which shows a total of $31,923.95 sent to the Council Treasurer and a grand total of $55,119.55.

Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb, Home Base Secretary, congratulated the Conference on this splendid report, assuring us that the North Carolina Conference held an exalted place in the Woman's Missionary Council.

Mrs. T. A. Person gave the report of Mission Study and Publicity. Report adopted. (Officer's report No. 5.) Mrs. Lipscomb told of some of the new Mission study books and of her material from the Home Base Department of great value to the Auxiliaries.

Mrs. H. J. Boney gave the report of the Corresponding Secretary. Report adopted. (Officers' report No. 1.) Only the two Georgia Conferences separate us from the best financial report sent to the Council Treasurer. The North Carolina Children for the fifth year lead Southern Methodism and our Young People stand eighth. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Boney for her work as Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. R. L. Kirkwood, Corresponding Secretary of the South Carolina Conference; Mrs. C. E. Exum, District Secretary; Mrs. L. C. Breeden, Mrs. E. D. Moore, Miss Dixon, and Mrs. Marvin Moore, of Bennettsville, S. C., were introduced to the Conference. Lipscomb and Miss Elizabeth Lamb answering the two outstanding questions: (1st) How to interest women who are not interested in the Missionary Societies;(2nd) How to interest the parents in the work for Children and Young People. Announcements were made and the Conference adjourned.

It was a joy to the Conference to hear Mrs. F. S. Love sing, "I Walk With the King."

"Our Sufficiency is with God" was the subject of Mrs. Peppler's devotional message. She proved to the Conference in her pleasing, convincing way, that neither pleasure, work, friendship, intellectual attainment or self were sufficient for life's problems—but that "I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me."

"Jesus Calls Us O'er The Tumult" was sung. Mrs. A. M. Gates dismissed the Conference with prayer.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON—2:30–5:30.

CENTENARY LUNCHEON.

Inspiration for this Centenary Luncheon had come from no less a source than from Mrs. Mary L. Hargrove, Associate

Secretary of the Centenary. So it was with eager expectations that the North Carolina Conference had looked toward the occasion.

Three hundred women, far more anxious to learn "more and more" of the great Centenary than even for the very pleasant social feature of lunching together, crowded the dining hall of the Rockingham Hotel.

The Conference was glad that Mrs. R. B. John was Toast Mistress. Her thought, her graciousness, contributed no small part to the success of the splendid occasion.

Following the singing of America, prayer was led by Rev. H. M. North, solos by Mrs. F. S. Love and Miss Ormond were much enjoyed.

Mrs. John introduced Mrs. Lipscomb, our Council representative, as the first speaker. Mrs. Lipscomb made it plain that Christianity has a place in the world that it has never had before; that women in the Church of God have a chance today they have never had before and that Womanhood, Childhood and Manhood can do anything if they have a chance.

Miss Cordelia Erwin spoke out of her intimate experiences on "What the Centenary Would Mean to the Orient."

Mrs. W. P. Webb, of Rockingham, discussed the individual effort which the Centenary needed.

Miss Jeddie May Bristow, of Carolina College, spoke on "The Challenge of the Centenary."

Miss Emma Page very cleverly reminded us of a wonderful "Birthday Party" on the 18th of May, to which two millions of Methodists were invited.

Mrs. A. M. Gates, of Durham, told us that it is "Me and the Lord" on whom the Centenary depends.

Mrs. T. A. Person, of Greenville, spoke on the "Centenary Being Divinely Planned."

Each speaker brought new thought, fresh inspiration and a deeper force that will add impetus to the work which the women of the North Carolina Conference can do to strengthen the marvelous opportunities of the Centenary.

With a deeper earnestness of purpose and with a new realization of the meaning of Julia Ward Howe's words, as a closing message, there rang out those soul stirring words:

"Glory! glory, hallelujah! His truth is marching on."

FRIDAY—MORNING SESSION.

Devotional Services were conducted by Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb. "Lord Speak To Me, That I May Speak" was sung. Several fervent sentence prayers were offered. Malachi,

North Carolina State Library
Raleigh

3rd Chapter, 7-12 and 16-18, was read responsively. Mrs. Lipscomb led the Conference in prayer.

Conference called to order by the President. Minutes were read and approved.

Messrs. Ormond, Scales and Shepherd were introduced as pages for the day. Applause greeted the news of the splendid work they are doing among the Young People of Rockingham.

Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson read interesting clippings from a letter written at Virginia School, Huchow, China, by our much loved Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon. A rising vote of appreciation for the service which Miss McKinnon is giving to China was given by the Conference. Mrs. H. J. Faison was asked to lead a special prayer for Miss McKinnon.

The following telegrams were read:

Mrs. John D. Shaw read the report of the Rockingham District. Report adopted. (District Secretaries' report No. 6.)

Mrs. H. J. Faison read extracts from intensely interesting letters of Mrs. Ellen Morphis Wood. Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Wood, of N. C., with Dr. and Mrs. Young J. Allen, of Georgia, formed the first party which was ever sent out as foreign Missionaries by the M. E. Church, South. The Conference keenly appreciates the copy of these letters and a sketch of Mrs. Wood's life, which was presented by Mr. Wood (son of Rev. M. L. Wood) now residing in Rockingham, N. C. Mrs. LeGrand Everett spoke of the Missionary influence which a daughter of Mrs. Wood had exerted over the town of Rockingham. The motion was carried that some of these letters be published in The Raleigh Advocate.

Miss Emma Page, Mrs. H. F. Long, Mrs. H. J. Faison and Miss Vara Herring were appointed tellers for the election of officers. Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb was called to the chair. Rev.

H. M. North led the Conference in prayer that God's will would lead in choosing the officers for the coming year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. A. M. Gates.

Vice-President—Miss May Edla Smith.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. H. J. Boney.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. E. M. Snipes.

Treasurer—Mrs. F. B. McKinne.

Superintendent of Young People's Work—Miss Lillie Duke.

Superintendent of Children's Work—Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson.

Superintendent of Mission Study and Publicity—Mrs. T. A. Person.

Superintendent of Social Service—Mrs. E. C. Duncan.

Superintendent of Supplies—Mrs. Ida Wilkins.

The Conference adjourned for the noon Devotional Hour.

The Conference again enjoyed a beautiful solo by Mrs. F. S. Love.

The subject of Mrs. Peppler's Bible Lesson was the story of the "Home at Bethany." "Be still and know that I am God" had reached its full maturity in Mary's heart and had caused her to give this sublime expression of her Saviour's love. Mrs. Peppler led us to know that Mary's act, when she annointed the feet of her Lord, will live through the ages as precious to Christ and that the words "She hath done what she could" would always live as the highest words of praise. Mrs. Peppler's messages of consecration have touched deeply the heart of the Conference.

"O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" was sung and Miss Lamb dismissed the Conference with prayer.

FRIDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Miss Emma Page led the prayer.

Oxford, St. Paul's, Goldsboro and Nashville extended invitations for the next Annual Meeting. By standing vote, the Conference decided to go to Oxford. The time for holding the next annual meeting was left to be decided by the Executive Committee, District Secretaries and the Oxford Auxiliaries.

Mrs. M. T. Plyler, Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson and Mrs. Ida Wilkins were named as a Historical Committee for the Conference.

By acclamation, Mrs. E. L. Hart was elected Superintendent of Literature and Mrs. V. Royster Editor of the Advocate Page.

The following were named for the District Secretaries:

Durham District—Miss Mattie Pulliam.

Elizabeth City District—Mrs. George Hawkins.

Fayetteville District—Mrs. Emma Hunter.

New Bern District—Mrs. Fred Mintz.

Raleigh District—Miss Vara Herring.

Rockingham District—Miss Georgie Biggs.

Elizabeth City District	1,400.
Fayetteville District	1,000.
New Bern District	2,000.
Raleigh District	3,000.
Rockingham District	3,500.
Warrenton District	1,750.
Washington District	1,500.
Wilmimgton District	1,500.

There being no other business, the Conference adjourned. Rev. H. M. North dismissed the Conference with prayer.

EVENING SERVICES.

TUESDAY EVENING.

The first service of an annual meeting is always an exceptionally happy one, for is it not the beginning of the Conference to which we have looked and thought and prayed for all of twelve months? Former acquaintances are again brought face to face, new acquaintances with such a oneness of purpose to unite them, are instantly in a company of lifelong friends. Thus the old and the young; the woman who serves through the country church; the woman who works in the city church, through service they have tried to render in His name, are one happy family circle. The Rockingham Church in every way was sincerely the home to which each delegate and visitor felt the welcome which Rev. A. L. Ormond and Mrs. W. P. Webb expressed in such a genuine manner.

Mrs. H. J. Boney expressed deep appreciation for the cordial welcome Rockingham had given the Conference.

Beautiful music by the choir was greatly enjoyed.

The part of the evening's program to which we had looked with happiest anticipations was the sermon by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Washington, N. C. He needs no introduction to the members of the North Carolina Conference. During thirty-two years he has practiced "Tithing." Therefore he could preach from the depth of his heart and experience and with his vigor and earnestness on our obligations to God. The large congregation who greeted him will not forget his interpretation of "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings."

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The Bible Lesson was given by Mrs. R. B. John. Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb gave the first address of the evening on "Our Home Field." As we heard of fifty millions of unchurched, unsaved people in our own land, with our effort to reach 2,000,000 foreign born people to whom the Southern Methodist Church is called to minister, we were made to realize the power of Mrs. Lipscomb's words when she declared: "If there ever was a time when America needs to stand for Home Missions and service to God, it is today."

The strength of Mrs. Lipscomb's address should cause the North Carolina Conference to study more closely and seriously the salvation of America.

"The Call of Korea" was graphically given in an intensely interesting address by Miss Cordelia Erwin, a Kentucky young woman who has given splendid service to Korea during the last twelve years. Among the many needs of Korea, Miss Erwin pointed out that civilization was not enough, but there must be christianization. (2) That Koreans may come to know God and that He is love because their hearts are hungry for something to worship. (3) Many, many more Missionaries to make clear the news of Jesus Christ and to help the splendid native christians. (4) More schools for girls, for there are no schools for girls except those established by mission boards. (5) Hospitals, because disease runs riot in Korea. (6) A publishing house. The printed page is an urgent necessity. There are a few papers but they are all for the men. Few know how to read before being converted or before going to the mission schools.

The presence of Miss Erwin was a blessing to our Conference. The spirit of Christ shone in her happpy face and spoke to us through her words of consecration. The North Carolina Conference will love and pray for her not alone for what she meant to us, but more for what her earnest, sincere life will mean to Korea.

"The Call of Korea" was answered by Miss Erwin's closing words: "Have we done what we could? Have you? Have I?

THURSDAY EVENING.

"He Knows It All" was sweetly sung by Mrs. H. F. Long and Mrs. Frank Leak. Miss Mary Ella McCall gave a very impressive Bible Lesson.

"Fruits of our Work" was a very interesting and convincing part of the program. Four girls from the Rockingham Young People's Auxiliary and Miss Erwin, in native costumes, representing student life in Bevard Institute, Holding Institute, Brazil, China and Korea, told something of their life stories.

A Stereoptican lecture on "World Conditions" was given by Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb. In her inimitable way Mrs. Lipscomb made us acquainted, through our eyes, with many of the direct results of missionary endeavors. The Conference appreciated deeply the vital information which the pictures carried and much gratitude is due Mrs. Lipscomb for her interest in giving them to us.

Mrs. Lipscomb's messages during each day were a constant delight and inspiration. The North Carolina Conference stands ready at all times to give her a hearty, thrice glad welcome.

For the first time in many years we paid the pledge with a surplus. Every district paid in full with Rockingham leading. The North Carolina Conference sent $32,123.95 to Council Treasurer. South Georgia has always led the Conferences in finances and in 1918 North Carolina's pledge was second, though North Georgia's Specials number more than ours. In 1919 all specials will count as pledge and your council delegates dared pledge $20,000. North Georgia pledged $23,000. How we hated to pledge less than North Georgia. We are hoping that our Conference will raise considerably more than we pledged this year. Let us have greater faith.

North Carolina Conference ranks third among the Conferences of Southern Methodism, Young People rank eighth and again our Bright Jewels lead in finances. North Carolina Conference is recognized as one of the best and most loyal in the connection. This past year we met every obligation and have gone forward as never before. The work at times seemed hard and the responsibility almost too great, but I could always hear the voice of the Deaconess who said, "Give my Lord and me any task and we will perform it." To you Christ-like women of the great North Carolina Conference, I wish to give thanks for your loyal support and for the confidence which has made the carrying out of plans possible.

Miss Bennett asked us to take for our slogan, "I, the Lord thy God, will hold thy right hand, fear not."

Organization.

There is a net increase of 14 new Auxiliaries and 484 adult members. Warrenton District having gained 8 of the Auxiliaries, Durham 4, Raleigh 1, Elizabeth City 1, and Fayetteville 1. Other districts lost and gained but remained the same in number.

Week of Prayer.

Although many Auxiliaries were prevented from meeting at all during the fourth quarter on account of sickness. We had 58 Auxiliaries to observe week of Prayer. Durham District leading with 15 Auxiliaries contributing to the week of Prayer fund. Raleigh reported 13 and Rockingham 11.

Harvest Day.

A large percent of our Auxiliaries observed Harvest Day. We continue to urge this to be held in the early part of December. May we be able to report an increase of at least 15% in members and offerings on next Harvest Day.

Scarritt Bible and Training School.

We did not do anything special for Scarritt this year, but, Oxford Auxiliary and one other sent boxes during the year. Surely we will be pleased to support one of our own girls there during 1919-1920.

District Meeting.

The District and Group Meetings were well attended. The Secretaries seemed to put forth greater efforts to make the programs attractive and there was greater earnestness of purpose and spirituality in the meetings than ever before. Too much praise can not be given these worthy laborers in His vineyard. Truly He can say unto them, "Well done thy good and faithful servants."

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

(No. 3)

In spite of the many difficulties that confronted us during 1918 the young people of the North Carolina Conference have gone forward in their work with a zeal and enthusiasm that knows no defeat and so have made this the biggest and best year of their history.

And now in this great Centenary Movement, shall we not pray for a larger vision that will lead us on to a still higher and holier inspiration for the wonderful opportunities that await us in 1919. Shall we not throw ourselves mightily into great spiritual warfare and so give of our very best to hasten the day when all the nations of the earth shall "crown Him Lord of all".

And will not you, my co-workers, help these young people to realize what a mighty force they are and the need the church has for everyone of them? Will not some good woman in every church, whether there be an Adult Auxiliary or not, volunteer to enlist the young people at least during this Centenary Movement, impressing upon them the magnitude of the work and the responsibility that rests upon each one of them? This is your opportunity—what will you do with it?

It is gratifying to believe that one of the best reasons for much of our success during the year is due to the fact that so many Auxiliaries sent representatives to the Annual and District Meetings. Special mention is here given to those who reported: Biscoe, Blue Birds, (Fayetteville); Carthage, Carolina College, Eureka, Elizabeth Lamb (Louisburg); Hay Street (Fayetteville); Edenton Street (Raleigh); Fremont, Fifth Street (Wilmington); Greenville Gibson Kenly, Lillie Duke (Rockingham); Louisburg No. 1, Littleton College, Middlesex, Memorial (Durham); Manteo M. E. Orphanage Prospect Plank Chapel, Raeford, Roxboro, Rose Hill, Rebecca LeGrand (Rockingham); St. Johns, Spring Hope, Sanford St. Pauls (Goldsboro); Trenton, Wesleyan Duaghters (Louisburg), Wilson, Weldon and Yanceyville.

The following Auxiliaries—Trenton, Louisburg No. 1, Gibson and Rose Hill have made the "Honor Roll" are entitled not only to special mention, but are given by the Coucil Superintendent of Young People's Work the beautiful "Ribbon Flyers", which is her gift each year to the Auxiliaries reaching the "Standard of Excellence".

Rockingham is the banner District for having raised the largest amount of money during the year—$454.59. Wilmington District claims the largest amount per capita—$2.39, and the Durham District as second with $2.30 per capita.

Sanford is the banner Auxiliary with $136.05 to her credit. Memorial follows with $116.50, and Louisburg is third with $100.25.

St. Pauls (Goldsboro), raised the largest amount per member—$6.33, followed by Rebecca LeGrand (Rockingham), with $4.95, and the Lillie Duke (Rockingham), with $4.81.

Our own Miss Mary Pescud, who was for several years our representative in Brazil, has presented to the young people of North Carolina Conference a "Brazilian Banner" to be given each year to the Auxiliary making the highest average on the "Honor Roll". And so it is now my pleasure and privilege to present this banner to the Rose Hill Young People, and I heartily congratulate them on their spendid success of 1918.

Auxiliaries paying during year $100.00 or more: Memorial (Durham), Sanford, Louisburg No. 1.

Auxiliaries paying during year $75.00 to $100.00: St. Pauls (Goldsboro), Carolina College (Maxton), St. Johns.

Auxiliaries paying $50.00 to $75.00 per year: Gibson, Rebecca LeGrand (Rockingham), Prospect, Wesleyan Daughters, Weldon.

LILLIE DUKE, Conference Sup't of Young People's Work.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF CHILDREN'S WORK.

(No. 4.)

In spite of war and pestilence, the Children's Department of the Woman's Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference has gone forward during 1918, having again led the children of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in their contributions for Missions. We are proud of this record and of the fine body of Second Vice-Presidents which have made it possible, and congratulate both the children and their leaders. They have accomplished great things for God, and He will give them their reward. But we must do even better the present year or we may lose the place of leadership which we have held for so many years. One of the Georgia Conferences is close upon our heels and will overtake us if we do not go forward.

Sixteen new bands were organized during the year; but as seventeen bands died for lack of some one to take charge of them, we do not report a gain, but even a loss of one. It is sad but true that some of our Woman's Societies neglect the children's work and the whole church work suffers. My dear women, please see to it that some one who both can and will attend to this important work is put in charge of the children, and then give to these leaders, whom you have chosen, your cordial co-operation. If for any reason the one chosen can not give her attention to it, I beg that the Auxiliary do not permit this failure to lead to the going down of the band, but that another who can and will attend to the work be selected.

Another matter in which the women can greatly aid our work. Only about five hundred subscribers to the Young Christian Worker were reported, and some of these seem to have expired during the year as the publishers give us credit for less than five hundred. I could hardly state in too emphatic language the importance and worth of this paper. It should be in every home where there are children. Indeed, I feel sure that if it were more widely read by our women there would be more and deeper interest shown by them in the children's work.

On account of influenza few reported having observed the Week of Prayer. Also few report having study circles. We expect to do better in these respects this year.

Memorial Church, Durham, has won the banner for the largest contribution, $165.47. Centenary, New Bern, is second with $144.05. The following have raised One Hundred Dollars or more: Memorial, $165.47; Centenary, $144.05; Franklinton, $112.15; the two societies at Dunn, $100.00; Kinston, $100.00; and Wilson, $100.00. Sanford wins the banner for raising the greatest amount per member, $4.24. Maysville, one of our newer bands, wins the Cuban Banner for the most subscribers to the Young Christian Worker. This band with only 31 members has thirty-seven subscribers to the paper. Somebody did good work there. Many of the bands did excellent work and deserve mention but space is precious and their record appears in the Statistical Report which accompanies this.

The summary of our work for the year shows forty-eight Baby Divisions with six hundred and thirteen members, and one hundred and eighteen Junior Divisions with two thousand nine hundred and eighty six members. Last year we had three thousand three hundred and eighty members in the Junior Divisions. Why this loss? Who is to blame? Let each of us resolve that the future shall see no such decline. But I am glad to say the gifts show an advance. The Baby Divisions raised in enrollment fees $45.41 and on their pledges, $203.26. The Juniors in dues $1,070.54, and on their pledge, $1,908.55. The grand total being $3,237.76.

I wish to thank my co-workers, the faithful Auxiliary Second Vice-Presidents for making this report possible. And I confidently call on them for the zealous and loyal labor which will give the children an honorable place in the Centenary work. This year of grateful memories and vast opportunities calls on every Methodist to do his utmost. We do not wish our children to fail and fall behind. For this reason and because of the World's need and the Master's command, I entreat both the Second Vice-Presidents and all the women of our Society to aid and encourage the children of the North Carolina Conference that they may do their part to send the story of the Christ Child to the children of all lands.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. N. H. D. WILSON.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF MISSION STUDY AND PUBLICITY.

(No. 5.)

In looking over some of our Centenary literature the other day, and realizing the great and wonderful thing that is before us, the thought was driven home to me, why have we been so slow in stressing Mission Study? As your Superintendent it came to me as a most poigniant question. Have we as a Conference given it the attention we should? Do we realize that it is the key to the situation?

The ripened fruit of Mission Study is correct knowledge of our Mission Work. Knowledge leads to enthusiasm, enthusiasm to prayer, and prayer to larger gifts of money, time and self.

It is as true today as when Hosea spoke the words: "My people perish for lack of knowledge." Do we believe it? Do we believe that Christian Missions is the only panacea for a world sick and staggering under a load of sin, ignorance, vice, superstition, idolatry and atheism. Then it behooves us to be up and doing. The Macedonian call is heard. Christian missions is the biggest subject in the universe, and it looms larger and larger upon our horizon. It challenges the best that is in us. It is the teachings of Jesus Christ and Him only which must finally settle all international affairs. Nothing else will keep them settled. Ours, then, is a mighty task, but we are a mighty people, and our God is a mighty God.

Let us, then, stress Mission Study this year as never before. Its possibilities are limitless. Equipment for best service lies only in an intelligent grasp of the situation, and this the study class supplies.

I beg you, then, in this our great Centenary year accept the work of Superintendent in your Auxiliary. Do not be afraid to undertake it. We learn by doing. We learn to speak by speaking, to write by writing, and thought finds language.

Again be willing to fail, if need be, for Jesus Christ's sake. A feeble effort will be followed by a better one, and by study and prayer this large opportunity for service may be a blessing in your life and in the lives of the women whose vision of life and God has been enlarged by your service in His name.

Again, we must stress publicity. What power there is in the printed page. We knew it of course all along, but it took the United States Government to send home the lesson. I ask you to look back on the publicity work of our Uncle Sam in the Liberty Loan and other campaigns and apply the lesson. And just as truly as publicity unlocked pocket books and turned billions of dollars into the nation's treasury, so also will it in our work create a new interest, arouse greater enthusiasm and inspire a deeper prayer life among our members and cause larger gifts to flow into our Lord's treasury. Surely it is one of our greatest opportuntiies. Let us then make larger use of the printed page and publish through the columns of church and secular papers what is being done through our organization for spreading the gospel, for the uplift of humanity, publishing the organized effort of the women of our church to give education to women and girls and to make it possible for them to live under conditions in which manhood and womanhood may be developed.

Reporting.

Again, I find it necessary to stress the quarterly reports. No matter how interesting your class or how up-to-date your methods, much of the force of your study is lost if you fail to report it through the proper channel.

This has been and is still one of the weak points of this department, especially among the young peoples' and children's classes.

Do not be satisfied with merely doing the work. It is just as essential to report the work which has already been done. Send in your reports properly filled out at the right time. I mean by that, please state the District name of Auxiliary, name and post office of Superintendent and number in class. Attention to these details will greatly facilitate matters.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE.

(No. 6.)

At the Council meeting in 1918 the Social Service Department was placed under the Educational Department of the Council, and Mrs. J. W. Downs was appointed Superintendent, with headquarters in Nashville, Tenn. In a recent communication she writes "Social Service is the basis for the working program of the Church. It must build for the future, and to do this it must build upon facts. The facts must be obtained and accurately put before the community in order to create a conscience on the needs. The cause must be removed and the evils which have already sprung up healed. Co-operation with all other Social Service agencies obtain the best results."

Because of the war and the time spent by the woman in Red Cross and other war relief work, the Social Service work of the Missionary Society was not stressed heavily. There were several Auxiliaries in our Conference, however, which continued their previous lines of activity, visiting the sick and strangers and giving aid in hospitals, county homes and jails. One Auxiliary reported a Sunday School for the negro children on one lady's place, and three societies reported work in the camps located near their cities.

The same question as to how to get reports returned to the Superintendent of Social Service comes up again this year. I have to confess that I have not received any more than I did last year, although I tried to send the blanks to the President when known, unless the Superintendent of Social Service had been returning the reports regularly, in which case I sent the blanks to her. In number of reports sent to me for the whole year, Washington District leads, with 15; Durham is second, with 13; Raleigh, third, with 12. Then comes Fayetteville, 11; Warrenton, 9; Elizabeth City, 5; New Bern, 4; Wilmington, 3; and Rockingham, 2. Durham and Fayetteville have the distinction of having more than one Auxiliary which sent in reports for all four quarters, for they each have two. In all there were eight faithful Auxiliary Superintendents who sent in a report for every quarter.

This first quarter of 1919 shows that several Auxiliaries are using the new report books for the Corresponding Secretary. While this does not give quite such a full report as does the regular blank, it answers the purpose and is much better than no report, especially for small town or country communities where there is not so much Social Service work as there are in the cities.

For the Society my best wish is that it may have as my successor a woman who has time and consecration to devote to traveling and correspondence; and for that new Superintendent, my hope is the zealous co-operation of many more Auxiliaries.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH K. PATTEN.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF LITERATURE.

(No. 7.)

I feel there is very little for me to say.

There have been very few complaints of literature not being received. We depend entirely upon the District Secretarys to keep our mailing list correct. Not all of them have sent revised lists this year.

Occasionally we have calls for literature we cannot furnish, but most of the Auxiliaries understand that we only handle leaflets bearing on the monthly subject of study. All other has to be ordered from Mrs. B. W.

Lipscomb, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn. Upon request she will send you a "List of Publication" and you can see just what is provided for your use.

In the past we have sent leaflets for only two months of the quarter, as the Superintendent of Social Service sent the news on that subject, but I think in the future all will come through me.

The work of this office is very simple, but I hope it results in some good.

Sincerely,

MRS. E. L. HART.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SUPPLIES.

(No. 8.)

Woman's Missionary Society of North Carolina Conferance for the year ending June 1, 1919:

Young Woman's Society, Rockingham, sent to Brevard, value	$ 7.50
Smithfield sent Preacher box	90.00
Weldon sent Preacher	7.00
Aberdeen sent box and check to Preacher	50.00
Rockingham sent check to Preacher	25.00
Warrenton sent check to Preacher	7.50
Total	$187.00

There were few calls from needy Preachers during 1918, but all who called, secured attention though only in a small way. Since January 1919, I have received two applications to which three checks and one box have been sent, amounting in value to $134.00. These were gratefully received and made necessary on account of influenza.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. IDA WILKINS, Supt. Supplies.

EDITOR'S REPORT OF ADVOCATE PAGE.

(No. 9.)

Although the year 1918-1919 has been characterized by very unusual conditions, we are glad to state that our Missionary Auxiliaries have shown almost a normal condition so far as page eight in the Advocate was concerned. There were fewer reports and less news from the Young People's Departments, caused by the fact that many young women the leaders and managers of these departments were pressed into service for our country.

There has been some improvement in items sent from our Auxiliaries, some have really been inspirational, but we feel that the Page does not mean as much to us as it should, for it should be so full of helpful suggestions to each Auxiliary that every woman when the Advocate is received should at once look at page eight for either an inspirational or educational Missionary message.

As this will be the last report this editor will send you, she wishes to thank all who have in any way contributed to the success of the Page this year, and also to assure you that she regrets the mistakes and delays that have seemed unavoidable.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. V. ROYSTER, Editor.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

(No. 9.)

Looking back over the years that have gone, we recall the delightful hospitality extended to our Conference by other towns in the North Carolina Conference, all having showered blessings upon us. But now when we think over the joys of this week, both spiritual and temporal,

Therefore be it resolved:

That we express our sincere appreciation of the hospitable manner in which the Rockingham people have welcomed us into their homes and extended to us every courtesy.

That we are deeply indebted to the choir and the soloists, Mrs. F. S. Love, Mrs. H. F. Long, Miss Myra Armond, for giving us such sweet music.

That we extend our thanks and appreciation to the efficient pages, who have served us so faithfully during the Conference.

That we thank Mr. and Mrs. Corpning of the Rockingham Hotel for serving the Centenary Luncheon which has wonderfully inspired our women.
